

as a over the road driver i often check the loacal weather and traffic from several hundred miles away in order to plan my trip thru the respective city to minimize loss of time and fuel savings from not having to sit in traffic. i support xm radio and the weather and traffic channel..if am or fm is afraid of the competition mayb instead of spending millllions of dollars fighting xm radio they should look within thier house and c why we r swithching to xm..